

EARLY RELEASE OF A SUPERANNUATION BENEFIT - SEVERE FINANCIAL HARDSHIP

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Superannuation benefits are generally 'preserved' until a member retires from the workforce after at least age 55. Government legislation permits the early release of preserved superannuation benefits before retirement after at least age 55 in very restricted circumstances.

Before you complete this form and make your application to the Trustee for early release of your superannuation benefit it is important you read the following information.

WHO CAN CLAIM FINANCIAL HARDSHIP?

There are strict guidelines in place for assessing Early Release applications, and you should understand these guidelines before you submit your application.

Before you make an application to the Trustee, the first thing to do is check if you're eligible to make a claim.

Have/are you:

1. Receiving Commonwealth income support payments for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks and are still in receipt of those payment?
2. Unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses (these must be outstanding and can be shown through bills)?
3. Not received a payment for a severe financial hardship claim from the trustee in the previous 12 months?

If you answered yes to all three questions, you are eligible to apply for Financial Hardship. Please fill out the attached form and send it to support@gigsuper.com.au.

HOW MUCH CAN BE RELEASED?

If the trustee is satisfied you meet these requirements, the trustee may release one lump sum payment in any 12 month period. The lump sum payment can be no more than a gross amount of $10,000 and no less than $1,000 (or the balance of your benefits, if it is less than $1,000)

Subject to these maximum and minimum amounts, the actual amount released will be determined by the Trustee, based on the information you provide on the application form.

WHAT TAX IS PAYABLE?

How any benefit that may be paid will be taxed depends on your age and the components of your super. If you are under age 60 we may be required to deduct tax on the taxable component of your severe financial hardship benefit payment. Consult your accountant and/or financial planner for details on the tax treatment for your personal circumstances.

WHAT IF YOU ARE NOT ELIGIBLE

If you did not answer yes to all three questions above, then you are not eligible to apply. If the expenses related to your financial hardship are listed below, you may wish to contact the ATO to apply for the release of your benefits on a specified compassionate grounds:

- Medical treatment
- Transport for medical treatment
- Mortgage assistance
- Modifications to your home and/or motor vehicle (due to disability)
- Funeral assistance
- Care for Terminal Medical condition

For more information on the above, please visit the ATO website at www.ato.gov.au, lodge an application through MyGov or contact the ATO on 13 28 61.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR EARLY RELEASE DUE TO FINANCIAL HARDSHIP?

Step 1. Have All Necessary Documents:

- Original letter from the appropriate Government agency that is no more than 21 days old, confirming your income support payments.
- Certified Proof of Identity (See below for details)

- Certified copy of a bank document showing your BSB, account number and account name. The copy cannot be more than six months old, however you can cover up the financial details if you prefer.
- Certified Proof of Income. (e.g. Pay Slips, Centrelink Income Statement). Copies cannot be more than six months old.
- A valid “Q230 letter” from Centrelink that is less than 21 days old.
- If you have changed your name and not advised us previously, you will need to provide a certified copy of your marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate.
- Evidence that supports the payment request (e.g. copies of overdue bills, demand notices, letters of default. Please do not send originals). Copies cannot be more than six months old.

What does certified mean?

If you provide us with a non-original copy of your ID documents or supporting paperwork, you must have them certified. That means the certifier must:

1. Sight the original and the copy to make sure both documents are identical
2. Write or stamp ‘certified true copy of original document’ on each page
3. Sign and print their name and qualification (e.g. Justice of the Peace, Australia Post employee) on each page.

What are the acceptable forms of ID?

- Your current driver’s licence or current passport (please copy and certify both front and back section if relevant) OR
- Your birth certificate, Australian birth extract, Citizenship certificate or current Centrelink pension card AND a current rates, electricity or gas notice (no more than 3 months old) or assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (no more than 12 months old) showing your name and current residential address.

Who can certify copies of ID?

- Justice of the Peace (including Commissioner for Declarations),
- Police Officer
- One of the following with two or more years of continuous service:

Please take note of the following important information:

YOUR DETAILS

Legislation states that we may not be able to process your claim without a correct residential address noted. A PO Box is not a residential address.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION QUESTIONNAIRE

You must be able to prove to the Trustee that you are not able to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses based on your current income and assets. If the Trustee finds that there is insufficient evidence, your application may not be approved.

When providing evidence of expenses, they must be reasonable and immediate and no older than 60 days. For example: rates notices, electricity bills, telephone bills or an outstanding credit card bill (only the minimum amount due is considered as immediate, not the total balance).

If you are claiming a private personal debt owed to a friend or family member, the lender must provide a Statutory Declaration (obtainable from any Australian Post Office) identifying the debt. The declaration must include:

- Full name and address of the lender;
- The purpose of the loan;
- Amount of the loan;
- The date the loan was made;
- The balance of the loan that remains outstanding; and
- The terms of repayment.

The person who lent the money must make this declaration, not the member. All the above information must be included, for this debt to be included for the purpose of assessing your eligibility for a Severe Financial Hardship application.

The information provided in your application will be used solely for determining whether you are experiencing severe financial hardship. The information will not be made available to any other person, (except under an order of a court).

HOW LONG WILL THE ASSESSMENT PROCESS TAKE?

To ensure your application is assessed as quickly as possible, it is important to make sure that the application form is correctly filled out, all necessary documents are provided, including certified copies. Missing information or documents will result in a delay in assessment while they are requested.

Once the complete application form and supporting documents are submitted, they will be reviewed by our Trustee.
